TITUS KAPHAR

2018 MacArthur Fellow

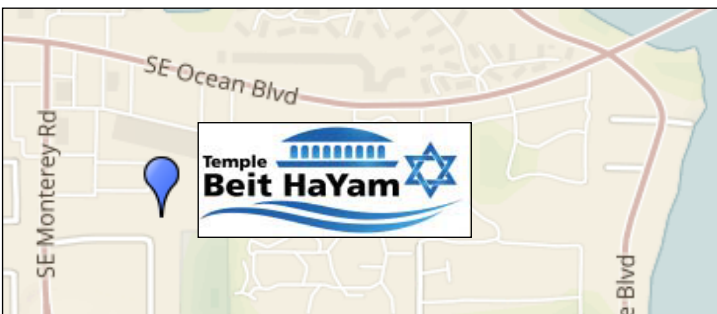

© John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation-used with permission.

TITUS KAPHAR uses art to dislodge history from its status as the “past” to unearth its relevance today. A 2018 MacArthur Fellow, his works have been in solo exhibitions at the National Portrait Gallery and Seattle Art Museum. They are held in many collections including MoMA and Perez Art Museum Miami. At the 2017 TED conference in Vancouver, Canada, Kaphar created a whitewash painting during his talk titled “Can Art Amend History?”
