

Celebration and Appreciation

Each week, we celebrate and recognize a student who has shown random acts of kindness and character as our Clark Caring Student of the Week. This week, we are recognizing Mauricio Villalba as a caring student-- in class his teacher asked for students to talk with a partner about the play they were reading - he noticed that a student across the room did not have a partner to talk with and he got up out of his seat -- walked across the room -- and worked with that student 3 times during the discussion. He could have just stayed where he was and done nothing -- but he chose to reach out to his classmate and make that person feel included. THAT is a wonderful act.

Students- Make sure to email Dr. Judd or drop a slip in the front office when you see others doing random acts of kindness and character.

Many thanks to the family of Marissa Salguero who provided a delicious staff breakfast this week!

Thanks to the Elg family for the staff meeting snacks and sweets!

This past week the 35th Annual Marvin S. Cone Juried High School Art Show began. Clark students Katie Berger, Eliana Cotton, Arianna Fairchild, Jade Nunez, and Renee Rivas participated in the show. Congratulations to Eliana Cotton, who placed 3rd in Drawing for her piece "Spirals", Arianna Fairchild, who received an "Honorable Mention" for her piece "A Moment in Time", and Renee Rivas, who received a purchase award for her piece "Serenity." Parent Corner

Article of potential interest: Stay tuned! Dr. Judd is currently viewing a very important movie about youth suicide created as part of a mission by a father whose 14 year old son died by suicide in 2018. His son left a note that said, “Tell my story.” So he is. Very valuable information about how to have tough conversations and the massive impact technology is having on our youngsters. This will be sent to parents within the next week. It is available free for about a month.
