

Are you interested in a career in the legal field?

Join us as our distinguished panel shares their journey into the profession.

Thursday, October 22, 2020

3:00 p.m. PDT | 6:00 p.m. EDT

Open to high school and undergraduate college students.

The webinar will take place via Zoom. To participate, you must register: <https://bit.ly/3mx1WzI>

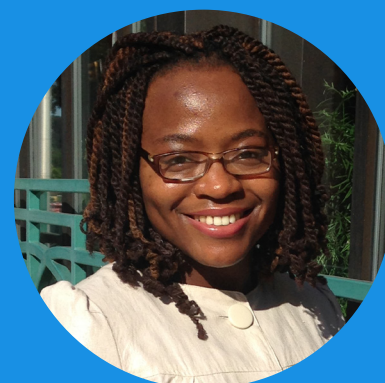

Chief Judge Maurice B. Foley

Judge Foley was appointed to the United States Tax Court by President William J. Clinton on April 9, 1995; reappointed by President Barack Obama on November 25, 2011; and elected as Chief Judge for a 2-year term effective June 1, 2018 and re-elected February 21, 2020 for a second 2-year term effective June 1, 2020. Judge Foley is an adjunct professor at American University Washington College of Law, the University of Colorado Law School, the University of Baltimore School of Law, and the University of San Diego School of Law.

Sarah-Julie Tchokouani, Esq

Sarah-Julie Tchokouani, Esq. is a judicial law clerk at the Sussex County Court of Common Pleas in Delaware. Sarah-Julie's interests lie in corporate/business law, as she is passionate about catering to both the business needs and the legal needs of a client. She is a proud alumna of The Ohio State University and Penn State University, Dickinson Law School where she earned a certificate in Entrepreneurship Law.

Michael J. Desmond

Michael J. Desmond is the 48th Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service, where he oversees a staff of more than 2,000 employees, including approximately 1,500 attorneys. After serving in the Tax Division, he joined McKee Nelson, LLP, where he was elected partner in 2004. In early 2005, Mr. Desmond joined the Office of Tax Policy at the Department of the Treasury, where he served as Tax Legislative Counsel through 2008. In January 2012, Mr. Desmond started his own boutique tax firm in Santa Barbara, California, where he practiced until his nomination as Chief Counsel in 2018. Mr. Desmond has held several offices with the Section of Taxation of the American Bar Association and served as a Regent for the American College of Tax Counsel. He also served as an adjunct professor at Georgetown University School of Law. Mr. Desmond was born in Santa Monica, California and is a graduate of the University of California, Santa Barbara and the Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law.